

IAN CONFERENCE

Attachment Theory

July 10th – 11th, 2009

Which parenting programme?

Parenting programmes are increasingly popular yet they are expensive and don't suit everyone – how do we know which to use, when, and for whom – what other forms of support and resources might parents find helpful?

Speakers include:

Professor Jane Barlow (University of Warwick)

Senior National Academy for Parenting Practitioners Reps

Dr. Tirril Harris, Dr. Helen Barrett

Researchers and practitioners with experience of using parenting programmes, resources and interventions of many kinds
